World #1 Wins Again with Dynamic Gold and Project X HZRDUS

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (March 6, 2017) — The WGC-Mexico Championship winner solidified his position as world #1 with his second win in two starts this weekend. The victory in Mexico City follows his win at The Honda Classic and marks his 14th PGA TOUR career title.

Due to the altitude at Club de Golf Chapultepec, the champion relied on his 2-iron shafted with Project X HZRDUS Black throughout the tournament, including when he drove a 322-yard par-4 on the course's opening hole during the third round.
